BURNED IN EXPLOSION.

Monessen Woman Victim of Gas Explosion Which Occured About Noon.

Mrs. L. S. Benninie wife of the proprietor of the Monessen Bakery was seriously burned by an explosion of gas which occured about 11:30 o'clock this morning. The unfortunate woman was alone in the baking room at the time the accident occured.

She attempted to light the gas in the oven but in some manner the oven had become filled with escaping gas and the moment she applied the match this was ignited and the explosion resulted.

The cries of the woman whose clothes had been set on fire by the flames attracted one of the employes who succeeded in extinguishing the blaze from her garments. His hands were somewhat scorched in the operation.

A physician was immediately summoned who dressed the womans burns.

It was found that her left arm from the tips of her fingers to her shoulder was badly scorched and blistered. Her right hand was also burned. Her eyebrows and hair were also burned off but her face and eyes escaped. Fortunately she did not inhale the flames. Although very painful her burns are not dangerous

BURGLARS STILL SAFE.

Identity of Those Who Robbed the Federal Supply Store at Webster Still a Mystery.

As yet no arrests have been made in connection with the robbery of the Federal Supply Co.'s store at Webster, which was committed Monday night. A few of the stolen watches, however, were recovered, having been found buried in a slack pile near the tipple. The thieves gained an entrance by forcing one of the office windows.

They secured a number of watches and various other articles and also took the cash register. This was carried to the coal tipple, some distance away, where it was broken open and but a few coppers secured as a reward. The register was ruined. Yesterday a foreigner found one of the watch trays and returned it to Manager Kyle. The thieves left no clue whatever. It was intimated this morning that the guilty parties were known and were under surveillance and that it was expected the stolen goods would be recovered.

Jr. O. U. A. M. FLAG DAY.

Reunion of 20.000 Members and Their Friends to be Held at Luna Park.

The John Gray Council of the Jr. O U. A M. will hold its annual celebration of flag day at Luna park tomorrow. The distribution of tickets has been in progress for the past week, and by today it is expected that at least 20,000 will be in the hands of prospective participants in the celebration.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads and traction companies to transport the unusally large crowd anticipated and the committee of arrangements is now at work upon an appropriate program for the day.

No Aristocracy Here

Unlike the teachers of Jeannette, the Pittsburg Gazette says the following concerning the "school marms" of McKeesport: "Inroads on McKeesport school teachers are being made by surrounding towns. Half a dozen of McKeesport's best teachers have received offers of better pay for less work. The latest to accept is Miss Flora Smith who goes to Glasseport. Miss Linnie Lawton is wanted by the school directors of Wilkinsburg and Miss Maud Woods has received an offer from Pittsburg."

Eagles Go to Clairton.

About twenty-five members of the local aerie F. O. E. will go to the Clairton this evening to be present at the initiation of an aerie at that place. District Deputy Jessie Hidrick will be in charge of the ceremonies.

In Record Time.

In the short time of three minutes a Uniontown Jury found the Grenwalt brothers guily of the burglary of an aged man near Scottdale.

Aristocracy Among Teachers.

Theodore B. Shanks, superintendent of the Jeannette schools, in his annual report to the board of directors asserts that a pseudo-aristocracy exists among the Jeannette teachers and says half the corps should be dismissed. The report was submitted before the teachers for the year were selected and its recommendations were not followed, all of the old teachers with one exception being re-elected. Efforts to suppress the superintendent's report, it is stated, were made by certain of the directors.

A Battle In the Sea.

Did you ever see bluefish charge a school of menhaden at sea? That is something worth seeing. The bluefish throw their lines forward until they almost surround the menhaden, and they attack them flank and rear. The menhaden fairly make the water boil in their efforts to escape, while all around the enemy is at them tearing relentlessly. Into all this commotion comes a great shark. It's a picnic for the shark, a school of menhaden all herded up for its benefit. It swims leisurely into the midst of them, opens its mouth and takes in half a dozen menhaden at a gulp. It swims around and bites out half a dozen more from the school. It gorges itself without effort. But the menhaden are not nearly as much disturbed by the presence of the monster swimming about among them as they are by the charging bluefish. The shark takes half a dozen fish or more at a bite, while the bluefish only bites a piece out of a single fish, but there is only one shark, while there may be thousands of bluefish plunging and tearing incessantly and killing and maiming at every stroke. The shark's a brute, but under such circumstances the menhaden have less of fear than they have of contempt for him.

Quite a Difference.

Employer—Young man, I hear that you bet on horse races. You are discharged. Youth—But my brother-in-law is a bookie. I have netted $600 on his tips this week. Employer—Ahem—er—close the door, please. Young man, your salary is doubled. Consider yourself my confidential adviser.—London Tit-Bits.

His System.

"I allus predict good weather," said the suburban sage.

"Why?"

"Well, if it is good I get credit fer it, an' if it ain't good the folks all allow that I done my best."—Minneapolis Tribune.

Hitting Him With the Truth.

Mr. Boastful—I wonder how it would seem if I could have all the money I have given to charity piled on a plate before me. Mrs. Boastful—I think you could still distinguish the plate.

A Bright Idea.

Theater Manager—I can't use your play, sir. It's too long for the stage. Amateur Playwright—But, I say—aw—look here—aw! Can't you lengthen the stage, you know?

Perhaps.

He—Why is it that unmarried women are usually "girls?" She—Possibly for the same reason that married men are mostly "boys."

Bad For Creditors.

In the faraway, benighted community of Damen, in Africa, the old fashioned method of throwing a debtor into prison, where he is safe from the tormenting visits of his creditors, is not followed. Instead, he is practically turned over to the mercy of the creditors in a literal sense. A heavy tree log is attached to his bare leg, and this he is obliged to drag after him wherever he goes. There is no escaping the creditors now, and the log remains bound to his ankle until his debts are paid.

Curiosities of Woman.

Women pin from left to right; men from right to left. Women button from right to left; men from left to right. Women stir from left to right (their tea, for instance); men from right to left. Women seldom know the difference between a right and a left shoe, and if a housemaid brings up a man's boots she will nine times out of ten place them so that the points will diverge. Can these peculiarities be explained?—London Truth.

Cash Your Checks.

It is not well to keep checks locked up in your desk. Cash them. It is security for yourself, if the drawer is not entirely reliable, and a favor to him if he is. "Stale" checks are an annoyance to bank officials and a general hindrance. Cash your checks!

Sarcastic.

Softly—I'd have you to understand sir, that I'm not such a fool as I look. Sarcast—Well, then, you have much to be thankful for.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stimpson, of Willimantic, Conn., who, after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute Kidney trouble. Sold by The Avenue Drug Store.

Bosworth's BIN N Infallible Nervine

The Great Nerve Tonic

Read this letter

Galien, Mich.

Gentlemen: I bought three bottles of your medicine from my druggist. The medicine rendered me very good service, but I am sorry to say that the druggists here are all sold out of your medicine. I should have bought six bottles instead of three. I will gladly take six bottles of the Nervine and Blood Tonic, and request that you write me, if you are able to read this, for I am rather old to write. I have suffered six years from NERVOUS TROUBLE, caused by a fall, and my whole body remained in a tremble, but no pain. Every doctor I consulted failed to help me, and I was compelled to give up all housework. Then I read your advertisement and bought your medicine, and almost immediately after commencing its use I was a new woman. I hope you will write me at once, and tell me how much money I must send, as I am anxious to get to using your medicine again soon. With most hearty regards, I remain,

MONESSEN LOSES AGAIN.

Roscoe-California Aggregation Win Yesterday's Contest at Athlet'c Park

Roscoe California defeated the locals at Atheletic park yesterday afternoon making their 7 runs in the first four innings. Kelly who started the twirling for the locals proved ineffective and was relieved by "Chuck" Shutterly. The batting was at once stopped as the assortment of twisters dished up by Shutterly proved a puzzle, and the visitors tried in vain to connect with the ball.

B. Humphies pitched for the "up the river" boys and allowed Monessen but 5 hits. The score:

Will Cure Consumption.

A A. Herren, Finch, Ark, writes "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for cough, colds and lung trouble I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." You never heard of anyone using Foley's money and Tar and not being satisfied

If you will make inquiry it will be a a revelation to you how many succumb to kidney or bladder trouble in one form or another. If the patient is not beyond medical aid, Foley's Kidney Cure will cure. It never disappoints.

W. R. Ward, of Dyersburg, Tenn, writes: "This is to certify that I have used Orino Laxative Fruit syrup for chronic constipation, and it has proven without a doubt, to be a thorough, practical remedy for this trouble, and it is with pleasure I offer my conscientious reference."

DISTURBED THE CONGREGATION

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by The Avenue Drug Store.

VIEWERS HERE TOMORROW.

The viewers who have been appointed by the court to assess the damages and benefits to properties caused by the opening of proposed River Street will be here tomorrow.

Everyone interested should be on the grounds, and the merchants and business men who will be especially benefited are urged to be present at this time.

Objections will be advanced which must necessarily be combatted, and it is important that those who favor the opening of this "street to the river" should be on hand to state their side of the case

This question has long been one of much importance to our residents—one which has been thoroughly discussed—one with which the majority are well acquainted, and those who have so long been fighting for the accomplishment of this issue have already tasted success, they ask that all turn out on this day to show how they stand.

Proposals.

Will be received until the 23rd day of June 1906 at 12 o'clock noon, by the Board of Directors for the School district of Rostraver Township Westmoreland Co. for the remodling and building of three new school rooms to the School building at Webster Pa. The Board reserves the right to rej ct any and al proposals. Drawings and specifications may be seen at the office of the secretary A. L. Murdock, Gibsonton or at W. H. Cowan MD, Webster or at the office of I A. Lohman Architect Monessen Pa.
